Crisis Assistance

Coed Pella,
Conway Road,
Colwyn Bay.
LL29 7AZ
0300 1240050

What can you do to help if I am sleeping outdoors?

Local Authorities do not always have a duty to provide temporary accommodation, but do have a duty to provide advice, assistance and an assessment of your needs to help prevent and/or relieve your homelessness.

Are there any other services to support & advise me?

Our partner agencies (below) can offer a range of advice and support. You can access the internet at your local library or at the Coed Pella Offices to make contact.

Direct Access Shelters

There is a Direct Access Shelter: Ty Golau, Clwyd Buildings, Clwyd Street, Rhyl, LL18 3LA. ☎ 01745 345900. You need to be there by 6.45pm to request shelter. There is demand for beds so consider arriving early. To be eligible you need to be homeless, 18 years old + and have some ID or Nat Ins Number and have a connection to Denbighshire. If there is less demand for beds they may consider you without a local connection.

There is also Ty Nos — Wrexham Night Shelter, which is at the old Maes Y Dre Community Centre, Holt Road, Wrexham, ☎ 01978 291274 between 8 p.m. – 9 a.m. or ☎ 01978 262 222 (day time enquiries)

Severe Weather Emergency Protocol (SWEP)

During extreme weather there is extra provision of services available for those without accommodation. Contact The Homeless Prevention Duty Team on ☎ 0300 1240050 or call in at Coed Pella Offices, Colwyn Bay 9.30am – 4.00pm. You can also contact Galw Gofal out of hours on 0300 123 6688

Community Support and Charities
