Mae Hiraethog yn ardal amaethyddol; mae'r llwybrau cyhoeddus hyn yn croesi ardaloedd lle mae defaid a gwartheg yn pori. Mae arwyddion wedi eu gosod ar bob llwybr ac mae'n bosibl y bydd angen croesi camfeydd, tir anwastad a llefydd gwlyb. Byddwch yn barod; rhaid gwisgo sgidiau a dillad addas i gerdded drwy gydol y flwyddyn.

Gan fod llawer o'r llwybr yn mynd trwy dir diarfordd, dylech fund â digon o fwyd a diod efo chi am y dydd.

1

Pentrefoelas

Mae'r pentref ystad traddodiadol hwn yn fan cychwyn gwych i ddilyn Llwybr Hiraethog yng Nghonwy, gyda digon o le i barcio, cyfleusterau a dewis da o lefydd aros. Mae Pentrefoelas yn llawn hanes, o'r meini hirion a'r carneddau gerllaw, i'r chwedlau am y 'Tylwyth Teg'; a chartref hynafiaid un o'r Arlywyddion America! Mae'r parc ar lan yr afon yn leoliad hyfryd ar gyfer picnic ac mae digon o gylchdeithiau i'w mwynhau.

Cadwch lygad am...

Carreg Levelinus – cofadail arysgrifedig yn coffáu Llywelyn Fawr. Dywedir i'r garreg gael ei chodi gan fynachod Aberconwy yn y 13eg ganrif i ddangos eu gwerthfawrogiad am rodd o dir.

2

Cerrigydrudion

Mae pentref Cerrigydrudion ar ymyl deheuol Mynydd Hiraethog wedi chwarae rhan allweddol yn hanes yr ardal am ganrifoedd. Roedd y pentref yn ganolfan bwysig i'r porthmyn Cymreig, yn ogystal â man aros yn ystod y gwaith o adeiladu ffordd Thomas Telford, yr A5, o Lundain i Gaergybi yn y 19eg ganrif. Mae Eglwys y Santes Fair yng nghanol y pentref ar agor bob dydd, ac mae hwb hanes a gwybodaeth ar gael i'ch helpu i wneud yn fawr o'ch ymweliad.

Cadwch lygad am...

Mae Canolfan Ymwelwyr Llyn Brenig ger Cerrigydrudion ac yno ceir llawer o gyfleusterau yn cynnwys beicio, pysgota, hwylio a nifer o lwybrau cerdded thematig.

3

Llangwm

Saif pentref Llangwm yng nghanol ardal wledig hyfryd ac mae'n lle poblogaidd ymhlith cerddwyr, beicwyr a gwylwyr adar. Dilynwch y llwybr troed i fyny'r mynydd oddi ar Llwybr Hiraethog i gopa Foel Goch gan fwynhau golygfeydd anhygoel ar draws siroedd Dinbych, Gwynedd a Chonwy. Os ydych yn bwriadu cerdded o amgylch Llangwm, mae nifer o drysorau cudd i'w darganfod yma, yn cynnwys ceunant a rhaeadr Glyn Diffwys a phont Glyn Diffwys, lleoliad un o brotestiadau Rhyfel y Degwm yn 1887.

Cadwch lygad am...

Hen felin y pentref a oedd yn cynhyrchu trydan ar gyfer y pentref hyd y 1930au, ac os ydych am fentro i gyfeiriad Glyn Diffwys, chwiliwch am y plac ar y bont sy'n coffáu Merthyrion Rhyfel y Degwm yn Llangwm.

4

Llanfihangel Glyn Myfyr

Mae'r pentref tlws hwn yn swatio mewn dyffryn bach, ar lannau Afon Alwen. Yn ôl yr hanes, ysgrifennodd William Wordsworth gerdd am Llanfihangel Glyn Myfyr pan ddaeth ar ymweliad ym 1824. Mae yma ardal bicnic hyfryd ar lan yr afon ac eglwys o'r 13eg ganrif sydd ar agor drwy'r flwyddyn. Mae cyfoeth o wybodaeth ar gael i ymwelwyr yn Eglwys Sant Mihangel gan roi cyfle i chi ddysgu mwy am hanes.

Cadwch lygad am...

Y Maen Cred, wrth i chi gyrraedd pentref Llanfihangel Glyn Myfyr o gyfeiriad Coedwig Clocaenog. Roedd y garreg hon o'r 17eg ganrif yn cyfeirio teithwyr blinedig at ffermdy cyfagos lle gallent orffwys cyn parhau â'u taith.

5

Cyffylliog

Saif pentref tlws Cyffylliog yn nyffryn Clywedog. Bydd eich taith yn eich arwain drwy'r llwybrau coediog at Pincyn Llŷs. Codwyd y cofadail hwn ym 1830 gan 2il Arglwydd Bagot i goffáu plannu'r goedwig gonifferaidd wreiddiol. Ceir yma olygfeydd godidog o Fynydd Hiraethog a Bryniau Clwyd.

Cadwch lygad am...

Eglwys ganoloesol y Santes Fair a'r 'ty hers' anarferol o'r cyfnod Sioraidd a adeiladwyd ar gyfer y plwyf gan Edward Owen o Fachlwyd ym 1823.

6

Llanrhaeadr-yng-Nghinmeirch

Mae'n werth chweil treulio rhywfaint o amser yn darganfod y pentref bach hyfryd hwn. Ceir yma nifer o adeiladau hynafol yn cynnwys tafarn, elusendai, crochendy ac Eglwys Sant Dyfnog. Mae'r eglwys yn adnabyddus am ei ffenestr Coeden Jesse odidog ar agor i ymwelwyr drwy'r flwyddyn.

Cadwch lygad am...

Ffynnon Sant Dyfnog a leolir ger yr eglwys, ewch trwy'r giât yn y fynwent. Mae'r ffynnon mewn coedlan ac os ydych yn hoffi ffotograffiaeth, mae'n lle delfrydol i dynnu lluniau hyfryd.

1

Pentrefoelas

This traditional estate village offers a great starting point to the Hiraethog Trail in Conwy, with ample parking, amenities and a good range of accommodation. Pentrefoelas is steeped in history, from the nearby standing stones and cairns, to the legends of the 'Fair Folk', and even the ancestral home of an American President! The riverside park is a lovely location for a picnic, and there are a number of circular walks to enjoy.

Look out for...

The Levelinus Stone – an inscribed monument dedicated to Llywelyn the Great. The stone was erected by the monks of Aberconwy in the 13th century to show their appreciation for a gift of land.

2

Cerrigydrudion

Situated on the southern edge of Mynydd Hiraethog, the village of Cerrigydrudion has been pivotal in the area's history for hundreds of years. The village was a major centre for the Welsh cattle drovers, as well as a staging post during the construction of Thomas Telford's A5 road from London to Holyhead in the 19th century. The medieval Church of St Mary Magdalene in the centre of the village is open daily, and contains a history hub and information to help you make the most of your visit.

Look out for...

The Llyn Brenig Visitor Centre is near Cerrigydrudion, with extensive facilities including cycling, fishing, sailing and a number of themed walking trails.

3

Llangwm

Popular with walkers, cyclists and birdwatchers, Llangwm is surrounded by stunning countryside. A footpath leading upland off the Hiraethog Trail will take you up to the summit of Foel Goch, which offers amazing views over the three counties of Denbighshire, Gwynedd and Conwy. If you are planning a number of walks around Llangwm, there are a few hidden gems near here, including Glyn Diffwys gorge and waterfall, and the Glyn Diffwys bridge, which was the scene of an uprising against the tithe taxes in 1887.

Look out for...

The old village mill, which provided electricity for the village until the 1930s; and if you are venturing near Glyn Diffwys, look out for the plaque commemorating the Tithe Martyrs of Llangwm, which is located on the bridge.

4

Llanfihangel Glyn Myfyr

This pretty village nestles in a small valley, on the banks of the River Alwen. It is said that William Wordsworth wrote a poem about Llanfihangel Glyn Myfyr when he visited here in 1824. The village boasts a picturesque riverside picnic area and a 13th-century church, which is open throughout the year. St Michael's Church has a wealth of information available for visitors, helping you to find out more about the history of the community and its features.

Look out for...

The Maen Cred stone as you approach the village of Llanfihangel Glyn Myfyr from the Clocaenog Forest. This 17th-century stone helped direct weary travellers to a nearby farm where they could rest before continuing their journey.

5

Cyffylliog

The quaint village of Cyffylliog is situated in the Clywedog Valley. Your journey will take you across woodland tracks and you will emerge to reach Pincyn Llŷs. This monument was erected by the 2nd Lord Bagot in 1830 to commemorate the planting of the original conifer forest, and offers stunning views across Hiraethog and the Clwydian Range.

Look out for...

The medieval church of St Mary's with its unusual Georgian 'hearse house', built for the parish by Edward Owen of Fachlwyd in 1823.

6

Llanrhaeadr-yng-Nghinmeirch

It is well worth taking some time to explore this lovely little village. The ancient buildings you will come across include an inn, almshouses, a pottery, and the Church of St Dyfnog, which is famous for its magnificent Jesse Window. The church is open and welcomes visitors throughout the year.

Look out for...

St Dyfnog's Well, which is situated near the church, with access via a gate in the churchyard. The well is situated in a copse and if you like photography, it is an ideal place to take some beautiful photographs.
