GUARANTEED INTERVIEW SCHEME

Conwy Employment Hub's new Guaranteed Interview Scheme is designed to make your recruitment process easier!

The Hub recently launched a pilot Guaranteed Interview Scheme for participants signed up to its programme, and due to the success it's really excited to be able to offer all employers across Conwy the opportunity to be part of the scheme.

The Hub's programme has long offered a bespoke job matching service for local employers, helping to enhance recruitment processes and supporting businesses and organisations to identify suitable candidates for jobs. The Guaranteed Interview Scheme goes one step further by attracting more job seekers to its programme and widening the pool of candidates that it can put in front of employers. All applicants will be pre-screened and only the most suitable candidates who meet all of the job specifications will be put forward for interview, saving employers time and money, and now is your chance to take advantage of this extra service.

If you would like to sign up to the scheme or would like more information, please get in touch with Clare Kingscott on 01492 577202 / 07892 709837 or employers@conwy.gov.uk.

GRWP LLANDRILLO MENAI COURSES FOR EMPLOYERS

Grwp Llandrillo Menai has recently updated information on the courses it has available for employers and employees.

Changes to Apprenticeships - Eligibility Criteria

Did you know that the eligibility criteria has been relaxed to make it easier to enrol existing employees on an Apprenticeship?

This means that businesses can use apprenticeships to upskill and retain the existing workforce.

Level 3 Apprenticeship in Energy Management - Now Available

The Agored Cymru Level 3 Diploma in Energy and Carbon Management looks at the skills and knowledge required for the management of energy consumption and carbon emissions within an organisation. It also considers sustainability of all resources including water and waste management.

Grwp Llandrillo Menai also has a range of Mental Health First Aid courses available for employees and managers.

For more information on the Apprenticeships, courses or to have a discussion about the updated funding options that are now available, please contact Zoe Kelly, Business Development Adviser on 07811 028 054.

UK SHARED PROSPERITY FUNDING FOR TRAINING

Conwy Employment Hub has secured £292,510 from the UK Government through the UK Shared Prosperity Fund to deliver vital jobs and education training academies across the county for the next 12 months.

Industries with a labour shortage locally will be targeted including Energy and Environment, Construction, Advanced Manufacturing, Creative and Digital, Tourism and Hospitality, Health, and Food and Farming.

The intensive schedule of training has already begun, led by key organisations in each sector and it has already secured a role for one of the participants:

Haydn Foulkes attended the Tourism and Hospitality Pathway run in partnership with Go North Wales which included sessions at the Quay Hotel in Deganwy and the Hilton Hotel in Dalgarrag.

"We learned a lot about tourism and hospitality in North Wales through this friendly programme, which also provided us with a training pack and exercises to hone our thoughts, ideas, and goals about this as a future career" said Haydn, while North Wales Tourism CEO Jim Jones said; "Partnering with the Hub has proven to be invaluable as they refer us clients who have been thoroughly vetted and possess a genuine enthusiasm for getting involved in the industry."

APPRENTICESHIP AWARD

THE inspiration behind a life-changing project helping socially isolated people into work has been nominated for a top award.

Mel Davis, a Community Employment Mentor with Conwy Employment Hub, is a finalist in the Apprentice of the Year Management category of Grwp Llandrillo Menai's 2024 Apprenticeship Awards.

With no previous academic qualifications to her name, the Old Colwyn mum-of-four joined the Hub six years ago and was encouraged to return to learning for CPD (Continuing Professional Development) and to help lay the foundations for her future career.

Mel went on to achieve a string of qualifications, including Diplomas Levels 3, 5 and 7 in Counselling, Coaching and Mentoring. She also secured a Level 4 Diploma in Project Management and did so having only recently been diagnosed with dyslexia, working her day job and creating the hugely successful Confidently You pre-employability scheme, which more than doubled its initial commitment to help 30 people across the county.

She is "delighted" to be nominated for the title but insists the acclaim will be shared with her colleagues and those who took part in the project.

Backed by the UK Government's Community Renewal Fund, Confidently You brought people together for more than 113 indoor and outdoor group activity sessions, ranging from bushcraft to paddle boarding, e-biking, caving, arts and crafts, and much more.

"We are so pleased with the results as having targeted 30 people there were in fact more than 60 who engaged with the project, many of whom are now in work and loving life, so it's been incredibly heart-warming to be a part of that."

Grwp Llandrillo Menai will announce the winners of the Apprenticeship Awards in early 2024.
