The planner is being launched in April 2025. Subject to funding restrictions, the Council will need to prioritise across all of its ambitions, so once any additional costs are known, decisions will have to be taken on whether it is affordable.

A key challenge is that the structure of each council does vary and therefore we are not always comparing like with like. Members of the team are also part of an all-Wales HR benchmarking development group which is developing new HR benchmarking statistics.
