

TIME TO TALK

Talk to me - Looking at photographs

Use the family photo album or even photos from magazines and books.

- Talk with your child about what you can see
- Name objects or people in the photographs
- Allow time for your child to copy your words and respond
- Use family photos to explain relationships to give your child an understanding of where they come from
- Having family photos around the home helps your child to feel valued and feel part of the family