

LEARN THROUGH PLAY

Helping with household jobs

Children love to help and there are a lot of benefits to your child's development from helping with household jobs.

- It helps them feel part of the family
- It develops their team building skills as you work together
- It teaches them life skills - older children can keep their own rooms clean and tidy
- It teaches them respect - tidying up their own toys will make them appreciate how much work goes into keeping your home tidy