

LEARN THROUGH PLAY

Marshmallow structures

Keep your child busy with these kitchen cupboard supplies. All you need is uncooked spaghetti and some marshmallows.

- This activity will help develop your child's fine motor skills
- Building a structure will encourage your child's imagination and creativity
- Ask your child to describe what they're building. This encourages them to use describing words and develop their storytelling skills