

LEARN THROUGH PLAY

Playing together

Playing with you is your child's favourite game.

- Joining in with your child's play helps them to build their confidence
- Talk to them when they're playing and they will learn new words
- Ask your child to describe what they're doing. This encourages them to use describing words and develop their storytelling skills
- Playing with your child will develop their team building skills and teach them to take turns